Tuesday, September 24. 1706.

From the Paris Gazette, dated September 25.

Naples, Auguſt 24.

THE Collateral has publiſh'd without any Oppoſitions, the Patent by which the King of Spain has given a plenary Authority independant of the ordinary Formalities to the Duke of Eſcalona our Viceroy, tho' there be no Example of the like Truſts being conferr'd on any Viceroy for near 200 Years paſt. But the Circumſtances of the preſent Time have made that Expedient neceſſary, and the Viceroy's Management ſhews he will make no Uſe of it but to maintain the publick Tranquility. In Virtue of theſe Powers, he has made a Field-Captain, which Office was uſuall, diſpos'd of by the Council of Madrid. He has eſtabliſh'd a moſt exact Order, that all thoſe who come hither, either by Sea and Land may be examin'd and oblig'd to make a Declaration of the Buſineſs they come about before a Judge depu ed for that Purpoſe, even tho' they have Paſſports. Yeſterday a Royal Chappel was held at the Palace, in Thankſgiving for the Reducing of Ma rid to the Obedience of his Catholick Maj ſty. The Galleys of the Squa ron of this Kingdom are come into Procida, after having retaken a Neapolitan Veſſel on board which was the Governour of Gallipoli, who had been taken by a Corſairs of Oneglia, which could not be taken they getting off by Force of rowing with Part of the Booty under the Cannon of the Iſle of Capraia.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Sept. 28.

From the Army of the two Crowns encamp'd at Cipuenzelos, Sept. 6. The Enemy's Army is ſtill encamp'd between Chicon and Colmenar; but as Deſerters report they have ſent their heavy Baggage to Fuente-Duena a Place ſituate on the Tagus, and deſign to follow it forthwith, to paſs that River there and retire towards Huete and Cuenca, Places that they have fortified on the Frontier of the Kingdom of Valencia. Some of thoſe Deſerters who are juſt now come in to us, report that their Army is actually in motion towards the Tagus; whereupon the Duke of Barwick who commands ours in Chief under King Philip, has call'd in all our advanc'd Guards, and given Order for the Army to make ready to decamp from hence to Night to follow the Enemy, in Caſe we receive a Confirmation in the Evening of their Retreat. To Day one of our Parties took a Man who was going with Letters to my Lord Galway one of the Enemy's Generals; which Letters being open'd, it appear'd that 1500 Horſes for remounting his Cavalry were ſent to him from Valencia; whereupon the Duke of Berwick preſently ſent a ſtrong Detachment, with Order to poſt themſelves in a certain Place where that Convoy muſt neceſſarily paſs, to endeavour to intercept it. In the mean time we foreſee, that if we cannot force the Enemy to an Engagement before they retire towards Huete and Cuenca, it will be impoſſible to attack them, becauſe that Part of the Country is full of Mountains and Defiles; and they will maintain themſelves there and ſettle in their Winter-Quarters the more eaſily, having made great Magazines in the 2 Places we have mention'd. The Reinforcement of 8 or 10000 Men which are to come to them from Portugal, have ſtop'd at Ciudad Rodrigo, fearing they ſhould be oblig'd to take too great a Circuit to get to their Army, we having cut off the direct Communication. Mean while they threaten to march to the City of Salamanca, to puniſh ſeverely the Inhabitants of that City for their Infidelity in returning to their Obedience to King Philip after they had declar'd for King Charles; and we have been forc'd to ſend Troops thither to ſecure them from the Effect of thoſe Threats. We have Intelligence that the Caſtle of Alicant defended it ſelf ſtill the 18th of this Month. Prince Tilly is made Viceroy of Navarre by King Philip, in the Room of the Duke de St. Juan, who is to return to Court to act as Councellor of the Council of War. The Royal Council, the Court of Juſtice, and the Poſt-Office, are re-eſtabliſh'd in Madrid. Don Joſeph Haubrana, formerly Secretary of War for the Milaneze, has been hang'd in that City, for having acted for King Charles III. Don Alexander Vaſſedra, a Grandee, has been thrown out of a Window into the Street, and kill'd: The Theatins of that City are made Priſoners of State. The Queen continues at Burgos, but is expected at Madrid the 15th Inſtant.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Sept. 28.

Geneva, Sept. 19. All the Talk here is of the raiſing of the Siege of Turin, and of the Defeat of the French Army that Beſieged it. Our laſt Advices from Piemont ſay, that Army had been two Days without Proviſion: That the Convoy which was coming to them from Suza, and taken the 5th of this Month by the Allies near Pianeſſa, was very Conſiderable. That, not to mention the Ammunition and Proviſions of which it partly conſiſted, there was found in it about two Millions of Livres in Specie, and a Service of Plate for the Duke of Orleans, valu'd at 20000 Crowns: That after the Battle the Remains of the French Army, that retir'd towards Pignerol, were purſu'd 3 or 4 Leagues by the Horſe of the Allies, and that in the Purſuit, M. de Langalerie, who commanded them, took 1500 Priſoners; and that beſides the 2000 Deſerters that came over to the Army of the Allies, 'tawas ſaid that 3000 Men more diſpers'd themſelves into the Valleys. Theſe Advices add further, that of 42000 Men the the French had before Turin when the Action began, not 16000 rallied under Pignerol of their Army.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Sept. 25.

Paris, Sept. 25. The Sieur de Ceberet, who arriv'd here the 20th Inſtant from the Army under the Count de Medavy, with 33 Standards and 23 Colours

Colours taken from the Enemy, reports, that their Loſs was much encreas'd in the Purſuit: That 3000 of their Men were kill'd, and 3500 made Priſoners, beſides the Straglers who in their Flight were kill'd by the Peaſants: That all their Cannon in Number 14 Pieces were taken, with their Ammunition, Proviſions, and Baggage: That they were purſued to the Mincio: That they have repaſs'd the Adige, and broken down all their Bridges, over which no more than 1800 Horſe and 600 Foot paſs'd.

Letters from Spain of the 7th of this Month, tell us the Armies continued encamp'd, the King of Spain at Cipuenzelos and the Enemy between Chincon and Colmenar: That the latter ſuffering very much for want of Proviſions and Cloaths, ſeem'd to deſign to attempt to paſs the Tagus to retire into the Kingdom of Valencia, but that their Motions were carefully obſerv'd; and that the King had ſent a Detachment into Eſtramadura, to joyn the Troops that were drawing together on that Side.

The 23d of this Month the Abbot Louvois, and the Marquis de St. Aulaire were receiv'd Members of the French Academy, in the Rooms of the Abbot Teſtu Mauray and the Sieur Teſtu Abbot of Belval. Each of them made a very Eloquent Speech, and were anſwer'd with great Eloquence by the Abbot Tallement Director, in the Name of the Society.
